Editing for Showing instead of Telling

- Highlight all adjectives and adverbs.

- Consider how you can replace these telling words with an image that will show and edit your writing accordingly.

For example, if the sentence said, “She skipped happily”, you might say, “Tell how high she skipped! What did her face look like? What was she doing with her hands?”